KENYA HAKUNA MATATA!!!

TEA FARM DAY TOUR.

Nairobi is about an hour's drive away from the hustle and bustle from Nairobi and as such makes a welcome day or overnight tour.

Kiambethu Tea Farm Cottages are situated at 7200 feet in a truly magnificent garden with views of the spectacular Mount Kilimanjaro and the Ngong hills. Kiambethu is a farmhouse to four generations of the first family to plant and make tea in Kenya

Kiambethu Tea Farm is one of Kenya's oldest tea farms. It's a family run business run by Marcus and Fiona Mitchell and it is possible to arrange a 'tea luncheon' with them. You can go, get a fabulous tour of the farm and learn the history of tea making in Kenya as well as of their farm and then get a home cooked meal with tea to follow!

PROGRAM:

Tours start off at 11:00 am from the main house. Marcus and Fiona welcome you with some homemade biscuits (yum!) and of course tea, before regaling tales of the farm and the tea making process.

Kiambethu Tea Farm Cottages Limuru Kenya the gardens around the home are lovely and well worth a stroll, especially to catch glimpses of the resident colobus monkeys! Also included in the tour is a walk through the indigenous forest that is still preserved (most was cleared for the tea farms). The guide is highly entertaining and comical!

The tour ends with a relaxed lunch. Again most of the produce is locally sourced and when making reservations inform them of any dietary requirements! The veggie options they had made was fantastic. Lunch is a 3 course affair with complementary beverages - wine, beers, sherry, soft drinks and of course teas and coffee!

ZIP LINING, BUNGEE JUMPING & WATER RAFTING ACTIVITIES.

Luckily we live in a country that provides both unique and thrilling experiences when it comes to adventure sports. And we found a few great options that exist within the most beautiful natural settings.

1. Water rafting.

White water rafting is a challenging activity using an inflatable raft to navigate a river. This is usually done in white water and different degrees of rough water, in order to thrill and excite (though that's debatable) the raft passengers. Rafting in Kenya has been popular for over 20 years and has some of the best rafting on the continent.

Tel: +254701302035 OR Mufasaadventures@gmail.com

KENYA HAKUNA MATATA!!!

2.Bungee Jumping.

Bungee jumping is for the daring and has become more popular in Kenya too. The weight limit is between 40kg to 110 kgs, and you will be jumping off a custom built steel tower 200 meters above.

3.Zip lining.

Fly across the Tana River on our new zip line, the perfect way to de-stress on a rush of adrenalin and marvel at the beautiful scenery from a different point of view. Zip lining Kenya

Minimum price per person is $ 250.00
